

Petitioner : Krishna Chakraborty

The Commission received a written complaint dated 19.12.12 from Ms. Krishna Chakraborty, Wife of Shri Pratap Chakraborty, Chingripota, Santoshpur, P.S. Budge Budge, Dist. South 24 Parganas alleging therein that six month prior to the date of complaint, the accused S.I. Souvik Majumder of Maheshtola P.S. got acquainted with the complainant and her son. At that time they had discussion about matrimonial dispute of the petitioner and he (S.I. Souvik Majumder) assured the complainant that he had good relationship with all other officers of his P.S. and that he would solve all the complainant's problems and then the O.P. (S.I. Souvik Majumder) took phone numbers of the complainant and her son.

It was further stated by the complainant that S.I. Souvik Majumder continued to harass the complainant and her son and also assaulted the complainant's son. The complainant apprehended threats to her and her son's life.

The Commission took cognizance of the complaint and directed the S.P., West Bengal Human Rights Commission to cause enquiry and report. Considering the enquiry report, the Commission examined S.I. Souvik Majumder. Finally the Commission considered the materials on record and the statement of S.I. Souvik Majumder and recommended as follows:-

"The Commission, therefore, recommends to Government that necessary disciplinary proceedings be initiated by the Commissioner of Police, Howrah against S.I. Souvik Majumder presently posted at Golabari P.S., Howrah. Further, it is recommended that Shri Tarak Nath Masanta, the then I/C of Maheshtola Police Station be cautioned for failing to exercise better control over his subordinates.”

By a letter dated 6th July, 2015 the Commission has been informed the action taken report that departmental proceeding has been drawn up against S.I. Souvik Majumder and I.C., Maheshtola P.S., Shri Tarak Nath Masanta has been cautioned.
